

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Salvador Valades is a native South Dakotan—born and raised in Edgemont; and,

WHEREAS, Chuck started employment at Fort Meade on November 5, 1951, as a clerk-typist in the Registrar Division which is now Medical Administration Services; and,

WHEREAS, Chuck has since held several positions, including claims examiner, chief for the patient control section, medical administration specialist, medical administrative officer (Assistant Chief, MAS); and,

WHEREAS, Chuck and his wife, Darlene, have three lovely children, Vince, Tina and Van, and several grandchildren; and,

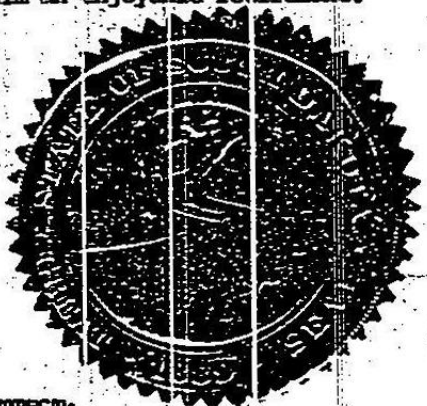

WHEREAS, After 38 years of dedicated service to Fort Meade which includes two years in the armed services, Chuck is going to retire; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this outstanding and loyal South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 3, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join with Chuck's friends and relatives in wishing him an enjoyable retirement.

SALVADOR (CHUCK) VALADES DAY

ATTEST:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "G. S. Mickelson".
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE